

Switzer-Carty Transportation Staff Announcement

- Dan Maradin and Ken Tower join the team at Switzer-Carty Transportation Services Inc.

BURLINGTON, Ontario – September 28, 2011

Jim Switzer, President & Chief Executive Officer, is pleased to announce that Dan Maradin has joined Switzer-Carty Transportation as Director of Operations and Ken Tower has joined as Branch Manager for the Brampton Branch.

“I am delighted that we could attract Dan and Ken to Switzer-Carty,” said Switzer. “They are committed professionals who know how important it is to provide safe, reliable transportation to school children across the Province.”

Dan Maradin has 22 years of experience in the school bus business and has enjoyed senior roles progressively over his career. Besides extensive experience in operations, Dan has more recently ran a large project related to transportation technology including GPS and other on-board devices designed to enhance customer service levels.

Ken Tower began his school bus career over 20 years ago. Most recently Ken ran a very large school bus branch in the Peel region. He is a long-time resident of Peel and has a well-established reputation for dedicated customer service and a focus on employee relations.

About Switzer-Carty Transportation

Switzer-Carty Transportation is based in Burlington, Ontario and is built on the premise of proactively recognizing and satisfying customer needs. Through the dedicated focus of our people, we create a safe and secure environment for our passengers that is worry free for customers.